Dear Judge Ho,

Pursuant to the Court's Individual Rules, Plaintiff respectfully submits this letter, with Defendants' consent, requesting an adjournment of the status conference scheduled for October 27, 2026, at 10:00 a.m. Plaintiff's counsel has a previously scheduled sentencing proceeding before the Honorable Valerie E. The parties have conferred and, subject to the Court's availability, respectfully propose the following alternative dates and times:

- Monday, October 26, 2026: Between 2:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.
- Wednesday, October 28, 2026: Any time.

The parties thank the Court for its consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Deanna Paul

By no later than October 22, 2026, the parties shall file a joint status letter proposing (1) deadlines for completing outstanding searches and providing information necessary for Plaintiff to evaluate the agencies' responses and to identify any issues that remain in dispute, and (2) a schedule for resolving such issues, if any, including through summary judgment if necessary. If the parties cannot agree on any of the above, the letter may set forth the parties' competing proposals and their respective positions (no more than 2 pages per side).
