IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION and AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION FOUNDATION, Plaintiffs, v. CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY, et al., Defendants.	)	Civil Action No. 1:16-cv-01256 (EGS)

JOINT PROPOSED SCHEDULING ORDER

Plaintiffs American Civil Liberties Union and American Civil Liberties Union Foundation (ACLU) submitted identical Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests to eighteen different Government entities for six different categories of information related to the prepublication review process. ECF No. 1. In this action, the ACLU is suing those eighteen entities for failing to respond to its FOIA requests. Id. The parties submitted Joint Proposed Scheduling Orders updating the Court on the status of the FOIA requests at issue on November 14, 2016, April 7, 2017, and June 23, 2017. ECF Nos. 23, 26, and 27. After receiving the parties' Joint Proposed Scheduling Order on June 23, 2017, the Court entered a Minute Order on June 26, 2017, directing the parties to file another Joint Proposed Scheduling Order by no later than August 25, 2017.

Pursuant to the Court's Order, the parties now file this Joint Proposed Scheduling Order. The Court's Standing Order in FOIA Cases directs parties to provide seven categories of information:

I-III. The Status of the FOIA Requests, the Anticipated Number of Responsive Records, and the Anticipated Dates by which Responsive Information Will Be Produced

A. CIA

The Central Intelligence Agency has finished producing responsive records, and the parties are in the process of discussing issues related to CIA's production.

B. DoD

The Department of Defense has finished producing responsive records, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii), the ACLU has filed a stipulation of dismissal, signed by all parties, of its claims against DoD, while reserving its right to seek attorney's fees.

C. DIA

The Defense Intelligence Agency has finished producing responsive records, and the parties are in the process of discussing issues related to DIA's production.

E. Air Force

The Air Force has finished producing responsive records, and the parties are in the process of discussing issues related to the Air Force's production.

F. Navy

The Navy has finished producing responsive records, and the parties are in the process of discussing issues related to the Navy's production.

G. NGIA

The National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency has finished producing responsive records, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii), the ACLU has filed a stipulation of dismissal, signed by all parties, of its claims against NGIA, while reserving its right to seek attorney's fees.

H. NRO

The National Reconnaissance Office has finished producing responsive records, and the parties are in the process of discussing issues related to NRO's production.

I. NSA

The National Security Agency has finished producing responsive records, and the parties are in the process of discussing issues related to NSA's production.

J. Marines

The Marines have finished producing responsive records, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii), the ACLU has filed a stipulation of dismissal, signed by all parties, of its claims against the Marines, while reserving its right to seek attorney's fees.

K. DOE

The Department of Energy has finished producing responsive records, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii), the ACLU has filed a stipulation of dismissal, signed by all parties, of its claims against DOE, while reserving its right to seek attorney's fees.

L. DHS

The Department of Homeland Security has finished producing responsive records, and the parties are in the process of discussing issues related to DHS's production.

M. Coast Guard

The Coast Guard has finished producing responsive records, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii), the ACLU has filed a stipulation of dismissal of its claims against the Coast Guard, while reserving its right to seek attorney's fees.

N. DOJ

The Department of Justice has finished producing responsive records, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii), the ACLU has filed a stipulation of dismissal of its claims against DOJ, while reserving its right to seek attorney's fees.

O. DEA

The Drug Enforcement Administration has finished producing responsive records, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii), the ACLU has filed a stipulation of dismissal of its claims against the DEA, while reserving its right to seek attorney's fees.

P. FBI

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has finished producing responsive records, with the exception of a small number of records that have been sent to other agencies for referrals or consultations.

Q. DOS

The Department of State is systematically processing a large number of responsive records and making regular rolling productions.

R. DOT

The Department of the Treasury has finished producing responsive records, with the exception of a small number of records that have been sent to other agencies for referrals or consultations.

S. ODNI

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence has finished producing responsive records, and the parties are in the process of discussing issues related to ODNI's production.

VI. Whether a motion for an Open America stay is likely in this case

The parties do not believe that an Open America stay is likely in this case.

V. Whether a Vaughn index will be required in this case

At this juncture, it is unclear whether Vaughn indices will be required in this case.

VI. Whether this case would benefit from referral to a magistrate judge or the District Court Mediation Program for purposes of settlement

The parties have worked cooperatively in this matter and are committed to continuing to work to resolve this case without further Court involvement. They do not, therefore, believe that the case would benefit from referral to a magistrate judge or the District Court's Mediation Program for purposes of settlement.

VII. A proposed briefing schedule for dispositive motions, if applicable

The parties have made significant progress in narrowing the issues in dispute and are committed to working toward a resolution of this matter without the need for further involvement from the Court. Rather than proposing a briefing schedule for dispositive motions at this time, the parties propose to file another Joint Proposed Scheduling Order on October 20, 2017, to update the Court on the status of Defendants' productions and whether further litigation will be necessary.
