ORDER OF COURT

Entered: April 7, 2026

Defendants-appellants have filed an "unopposed motion for a partial stay pending appeal," seeking a stay of "the portion of the district court's [annotated] judgment imposing the 'Sanction.'"[1] Plaintiffs-appellees have filed a response in which they indicate that they "do not oppose a partial stay pending appeal limited to the sanction remedy described in Part IV of the district court's annotated judgment." The unopposed request for a partial stay is granted, and "the portion of the district court's [annotated] judgment imposing the 'Sanction'" is stayed pending further order. See Nken v. Holder, 556 U.S. 418, 433-34 (2009) (stay standard; burden resides with moving party).
